PHILADELPHIA CHILDREN'S THEATRE
Presents
PINOCCHIO COMMEDIA

May 1, 2006 Philadelphia Children's Theatre (PCT) is proud to present PINOCCHIO COMMEDIA. A colorful and lively performance done in the classic 17th century style of Commedia dell Arte! Performances are held at our new performance venue 213 New Street, Phila., PA (OLD CITY, between 2nd & 3rd, Arch & Race). Box Office is located at: Ticket Philadelphia, Locust St., Phila PA 215-893-1999.

ABOUT PINOCCHIO COMMEDIA - In true commedia fashion this wild and uninhibited play begins with a troupe of strolling players exploding into the theatre with their noisy props and crude scenery. Arlecchino plays a Cricket; Pantalone plays Geppetto; Razullo, a Fox; Beltrama, a Cat; Pulcinella, the Wicked Puppetmaster; Pedrolina, a Donkey and a Fool; Columbina, a Spirit, and Pinocchio plays himself. The commedia flavor gives the story vigor and makes it entertainment for adults as well as children without losing the charm and significant message of Carlo Collodi's famous story.

About Philadelphia Children’s Theatre: Founded in 1998 by Marjorie Sokoloff and Gina Guglielmi, Philadelphia Children’s Theatre is a nonprofit theatre company that produces adaptations of classic children’s literature. Margie and Gina created PCT with the firm belief that children are an extremely discerning audience and therefore deserve a theatre company that produces intelligent and thought provoking stories that are worthy of it’s young people. PCT therefore employs professional artists and local actors of the highest quality and aims to provide theatre experiences that are alive, touching, engaging and enlightening. Since its inception, PCT has served over 27,000 children and their families in the Greater Philadelphia and South Jersey area. To learn more about PCT and the two fabulous women that created it, call (215) 528-2600 or visit our web site at www.PCTheatre.org
